EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application title has been amended to read:

- "Synchronized video-on-demand supplemental commentary"

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 104, 106-108, 110-115, 119-121, and 123-126 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The examiner concurs with the applicant's arguments (Page 8 – Section III) that the art of record fails to teach or suggest the claim taken as a whole and including the newly added limitations that "the second selectable option is associated with an option to display on-screen comments, and wherein the supplementary data stream comprises on-screen comments, the on-screen comments including comments from a director, a producer, an actor, a critic, and at least one other viewer" and "providing a third selectable option to select on-screen comments from one of a director, a producer, an actor, a critic, and at least one other viewer receiving a third viewer input from the viewer responsive to providing the third selectable option".

The claim requires that the set-top box receive a supplementary data stream comprising commentary from a director, a producer, an actor, a critic, and at least one other viewer. All of the types of commentary are subsequently stored and presented at their respective time intervals. While the art of record may provide for the particular presentation and storage of supplemental content at respectively time intervals as well as the existence of the claimed types of commentary, the references themselves do not provide an adequate specific teaching, suggestion, or motivation, necessary to particularly combine/provide all of the different claimed types of commentary with the more generic teaching of the presentation of supplemental content.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
